

Applicant Tracking Support Services

Improve your recruiting and hiring process with Applicant Tracking Support Services

Hire better people, faster.

Our HR professionals are now available to support your recruiting and hiring efforts by updating and managing your job posts in our Applicant Tracking System. Not only will they screen resumes, and choose qualified candidates for review, our team of HR professionals will also conduct initial phone interviews and pass qualified candidates directly to you. Our Applicant Tracking Support Services save you time within your current hiring process and remove the burden of sifting through unqualified resumes. With this service, you will only receive the most qualified candidates to interview, and reduce your time spent on the first few stages of the recruiting process.

Our team of experienced HR professionals will keep you updated on your current candidates and send detailed reports on the recruiting progress, with metrics including the number of applicants, outreach percentage, phone screens scheduled, and more!
